

In the Social Realm

Society was quite active last week. Several weddings, together with card parties, teas and luncheons filled the days, while receptions and trolley rides and the opening of the theatrical season made the evenings merry.

The interest of society people is centered in the approaching marriage of Miss Katherine Kimball Lawrence and Mr. Joseph Hardie Young, which will occur Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on North Main street.

The ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock by Bishop Abiel Leonard of the Episcopal church, and will be witnessed by relatives and intimate friends. Miss Blanche Kimball will be maid of honor, and Mr. F. C. Schramm best man.

A large reception will follow the marriage, 500 invitations having been extended.

The bride and groom will leave on the same evening for a trip through California.

Another wedding that is promised in the near future is that of Miss Maud Rives and Dr. W. T. Dalby. The engagement has just been made public. The marriage will take place early in October.

Miss Rives is the daughter of Judge Henry Rives and, although she has not lived in Salt Lake long, has many friends here. Dr. Dalby is one of our well-known physicians.

Mr. Meeks will be the guest of honor at a card party Thursday afternoon, which will be given by Mrs. Robert Walker.

Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Mrs. Samuel Paul, Miss Paul and Miss Hartwell entertained Thursday afternoon at cards. The decorations in the home were in the autumn colors of scarlet and gold, and were most artistic.

"Sixty-three" was played. The tally cards were exquisite water color creations of scenes in Europe, done by Miss Rose Hartwell, who is now in Italy. Prizes were won by Mrs. Vincent and Dr. Lucia Miles.

The guests were: Mrs. Bantz, Mrs. Niles, Mrs. Brink, Mrs. Critchlow, Mrs. Rood, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Vollmer, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Wither, Mrs. Gentsch, Mrs. Egbert Roberts, Mrs. Isaac Jennings, Mrs. George Snow, Mrs. Bransford, Mrs. Emery, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Daviler, Mrs. Charles Read, Mrs. Mulloy, Mrs. Terhune, Mrs. Vincent, Mrs. Hinnman, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Moffat, Mrs. Warnock, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Hal Brown, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Peyton, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Diehl, Mrs. Millsbaugh, Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Cambridge, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Dart, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Bird, Mrs.
